TRAINING PROGRAM

50KM INTERMEDIATE

Congratulations on committing to the 2024 Coastal Ascent Trail run.

RUNLAB have put together a 16 week training programs for all abilities for the 50km event within the Coastal Ascent.

RUNLAB trains runners in multiple locations and the training programs have been prepared by Team Salomon Runner and RUNLAB Founder, Vlad Shatrov. Vlad has combined his experience of training clients through his on ground interval running groups (MYRUNGROUP and MYRTRAILGROUP), functional in gym strength classes (RUNSTRONG) alongside his intimate knowledge of the Coastal Ascent courses to create these programs.

Vlad is one of Australia's best distance runners both on the road and the trails.

To stay updated on the Coastal Ascent, be sure to follow both the Official Facebook and Instagram pages.

You can also follow RUNLAB on Facebook and Instagram, as well as Vlad's Facebook and Instagram pages.

We also have a Facebook Training Group to stay in the loop

Good luck over the next 16 weeks and see you at the start on Sunday 9th June!

TRAINING PROGRAM

GET THE MOST OUT OF YOUR PROGRAM

First off, check out these important tips to help you get the most out of your training

Fit to train?

You should always consider seeking professional medical advice prior to commencing any training program. Talk to your doctor to make sure it's right for you before you begin.

Levels

Ensure you select the training program which is best suited to your abilities.

INTERMEDIATE

- ✓ Suitable for an experienced trail runner looking for a personal best!
- ✓ You regularly do speed work sessions and/or run 4-5 times per week already. As comparison, be able to run a half marathon sub 2:10, or marathon sub 4:00.
- ✓ What decides whether or not you are an intermediate runner is your training background and your familiarity with this type of training.

Overall program structure

The program runs for 16 weeks with scheduled session types tailored to how far or close we are to event day .

The core of all the training programs is the 'Long Run'. This is placed on the weekend as this is generally when most people have the time to complete this run.

We place an importance on trail specific sessions throughout the 16 weeks to help build you into a more sufficient runner, and we also schedule in dedicated time for strengthening exercises and running drills. There is plenty of opportunity to get comfortable with your target race pace too!

The Coastal Ascent is a challenging course, so you must prepare for it adequately.

Training Advice

Use these tips on a weekly basis to help you alongside your program. 16 weeks is a significant period of time, and you may find obstacles along the way. Got a training question? Jump on and ask Vlad on the Facebook Training Group.

Use the program as a guide

The training program is a 'guide' only, and as such, the pace and heart rate data is based on an average guide for that level of the plan. You may need to adjust this data to suit you. If in doubt, you can ask Vlad on the Facebook Training Group.

Adjusting the program

Don't ever feel that you can't modify the program if it doesn't work for you – it's flexible. For example, long runs are scheduled for a Sunday when most people have the time to complete them, however, you can always choose to undertake it on a Saturday instead. When adjusting, always take into account your current fitness levels and training history, and look to add variety to your active rest days such as cross training, swimming or gym sessions.

Be your own coach

Your training program is like your own little coach. The best thing is that it specifies each week and beyond, and details the type of sessions you should be doing. This means if you miss a session due to family or work commitments, you can adjust it slightly to suit you so that you complete all the recommended sessions.

COASTAL ASCENT

General Aerobic

General aerobic is a standard moderate effort run, slightly slower or equal in pace to a 'Long Run' – but just not as long in distance. The aim is to enhance overall aerobic conditioning.

Strength

Strength work features in the program up to twice a week. Strength training is often neglected but it is so important for many reasons. Performed correctly it can help address underlying imbalances and or weaknesses which if left unattended may result in injuries. Strength has been included into the program together with cross training. We would suggest up to 30 minutes of cardio-based exercise followed by strength work. Heavy weight sessions are not suggested rather functional strength training. The aim is to develop even and necessary strength for distance runners allowing an improved running efficiency and stronger overall body.

Trail & Trail Specific

Trail sessions are included into the program and serve multiple purposes. Trail running involves more hills and with that you'll get strength adaption when you include these sessions. Where a trail run is scheduled there is an alternate non trail running run also scheduled, only because getting onto trails can often be intimidating or logistically difficult, so only do it if you are comfortable. Trail running also impacts the body less and can break up the routine of road running training. Ensure you have trail specific running shoes for any trail runs of length, on wet trails or technically challenging trails.

Long Run

The aim of the 'Long Run' is to improve endurance. Do this at the correct intensity which is ideally 10-20% slower than marathon pace. You should be able to carry out a conversation running at this pace. If you prefer to use heart rate zones, try the runnersweb.com online calculator to give you an indication of the range you should be working in.

Speed

Speed sessions are short repetitions of between 600 – 1,600m at 5km pace. This provides stimulus to increase speed and lactate threshold.

These sessions allow you to become a faster runner and involve a warm-up and cool-down based around a core running set. The key to effective speed training is to aim to have all the repetitions completed within 1-5 seconds of each other. Don't do the first repetition so hard that the following reps become slower; likewise don't take the first 1-2 reps easy then pick it up. Wear a watch to help time and monitor these sessions.

Tempo

The Tempo Run – Lactate Threshold Pace is close to 15k or half marathon pace and provides stimulus to improve lactate threshold pace. These runs are challenging and you should only be able to talk in short sentences. The 'Tempo' part of the session should be completed on relatively flat ground so you can hold a consistent pace. Training at this pace for certain sessions is very beneficial in preparing you for your best marathon. If you haven't done a half marathon before that is okay too – set this as your desired realistic half marathon target pace.

Drills

Drills are running specific exercises and are usually performed near the start of certain sessions. Drills will help you warm-up the body prior to exercise but dependant on the type and execution they will actually allow you to become a more efficient and faster runner.

Time Trial

A time trial is a timed effort that you can use to assess current fitness levels, and refer back to over in time to monitor fitness adaptations. There are a couple of time trials scheduled within the program. Ensure you warm-up well before these efforts and take a record of the time you achieved.

Rest

Rest is an important component of this or any training program. It is during the rest period (the 24 to 72 hours between hard bouts of exercise) that the muscles regenerate and get stronger. If you're constantly fatigued, you will fail to reach your potential. We have designated rest days depending on your level. These are usually on Fridays to prepare for the weekends long run and / or Monday to recover after the weekend. If you need to take more rest days because of a sickness or a late night at the office etc. do so.
